

What is the structure of MDLAB?

MDLAB is a dynamic academy that offers lectures (presentations and panel discussions) and digital workshops. The lectures are usually interactive and encourage participants to participate in Q&As and dialogues with guest speakers. In the afternoons, you will attend digital workshops where you will use digital apps to complete the daily assignments. The academy also offers social events and cultural excursions.